

THE WORST AMONG US

Serial Killer Charles Ng

GOVERNOR NEWSOM has betrayed his promise to uphold the death penalty by granting reprieves to California's 737 death-row inmates.

Meet one.

Charles Ng was convicted of kidnapping, torturing and murdering six men, three women and two babies, though authorities believe he actually brutalized and killed more than 25. His accomplice Leonard Lake killed himself when confronted by police.

Together, they produced horrific videos of them raping and sodomizing women in front of boyfriends and husbands, killing babies in front of mothers, forcing children into three-way sex with them and other captives, then murdering them all with no mercy.

Ng will now continue enjoying hot meals, free health care and cable TV for life, while the families of his victims are shown no mercy for their suffering.

This isn't justice, Governor.
